DOJ,

As a taxpayer and software engineer, I think all the legal action against Microsoft is ridiculous.

I am not now and never have been a Microsoft employee, but I've used their products for many years. They have done nothing but improve the quality of software and lower the prices of software. I don't agree with all their actions, but I don't agree with the court's decisions against them. Regardless of my feelings, I believe any punitive action should be tempered with a sense of reality. These guys have created lots of jobs for lots of people, and I cannot see any downside to that.

Let's get this settled and over and move on. Let AOL and Sun and the rest complain all they want, but let's move on.
